// About me

My life's goal is to find the balance and harmony in the personal life and in the career.

As an amateur photographer I like traveling and since my childhood I do actively sports. Running is my hobby at present. But football, softball, lacrosse and skiing I like too.

For many years I was active in young camper club (T. K. Průzkumník) where I also gained a lot of life's experience. As both child and group leader later.

I am a graduate of retraining course in first aid by Czech Red Cross.

I prefer books oriented on life's hacks and personality development. Tim Ferris or David Heinemeier Hansson are my favourite writers.

In 2011, I spent six months in Porto, Portugal, where I had homeoffice and met many interesting people from different parts of Europe.
